

The Keystone School staff, students, parents, and school partners work to achieve the mission through a process of continuous improvement and professional development based on the following Expected School-wide Learning Results:

School Culture

All Keystone students, parents, student advocates, faculty and staff participate in learning as a life long process and actively support the learning of others.

- Students are actively engaged in their academic coursework
- Parents and student advocates utilize The Keystone School tools and resources to monitor and motivate student learning
- Faculty and staff work to design and implement programs and services that improve student achievement
- Faculty engage in ongoing individual professional improvement

Engagement

Success is achieved by collective and individual engagement.

- Students show activity within their courses in an appropriate amount of time.
- Students complete their courses within their specified amount of time.
- Students have the opportunity to be involved in clubs and organizations.
- Parents, guardians, and school officials are engaged with their students' education.
- Students have the opportunity to actively communicate with teachers and school community.

Instruction

All Keystone students, parents and student advocates are supported by faculty and staff who provide meaningful learning experiences and opportunities for individual academic success.

- Students are supported by faculty and staff who are proficient in their content area and use a variety of instructional strategies.
- Students utilize instructional tools designed to promote academic honesty and achievement.
- Faculty create connections with students through meaningful content, personalized feedback, and proactive support.
- The Keystone School ensures student success by providing continued supervision and support of faculty and analysis of instructional strategies.

Achievement

All Keystone students, parents, student advocates, faculty and staff view their role as critical to attaining a common mission: empowering students to achieve their academic goals.

- Students, parents, faculty, and staff are provided appropriate resources and services to meet the needs of students.
- The Keystone School conducts regular programmatic evaluations of student performance to inform school improvement.
- Appropriate student information is shared with necessary members of the Keystone community as needed to improve achievement.
- The Keystone School works with KCDL to enhance organizational collaboration in support of student achievement.
- Keystone staff leverages opportunities for sharing, communication, and collaboration to develop a broader sense of the Keystone community.